

iSeries 3613-12 Ravin LR / R5X / R10X / Crossbow Case

SKU: 3i-3613-R10X

Description

The 3i-3613-R10X Ravin LR, R5X, R10X Crossbow Case is part of the elite SKB iSeries, designed with meticulous attention to the needs of advanced crossbow enthusiasts. This injection molded, MIL-Standard waterproof case boasts an ultra-strong polypropylene copolymer resin construction that promises both durability and resilience. Safeguard your prized Ravin crossbows with the assurance of a gasket-sealed, water and dust tight design that remains submersible under the rigors of MIL-STD 810H. Moreover, its resistance to corrosion, impact damage, UV, solvents, and fungus ensures that this case withstands not just the tests of nature, but also time. Standard features elevate its usability with a molded-in hinge for added protection, Trigger Latch® System for quick access, snap-down rubber over-molded cushion grip handle for comfortable transport, and an automatic ambient pressure equalization valve complying with MIL-STD 810H for consistent protection across varying altitudes. Additionally, padlock loops offer added security for your equipment.

Inside, this case is prepared to snugly fit the dynamic Ravin® R5X Crossbow, a masterclass crossbow that effortlessly blends standard and bullpup designs for unparalleled performance. It also comfortably houses the Ravin® R10X Crossbow, an amped version of the renowned R10 design with boosted power and an adjustable fit for shooting versatility. Both these models, acclaimed for their accuracy, power, and design innovations, find a perfect travel companion in the 3i-3613-R10X case, ensuring they remain shielded, safe, and ready for action.

Whether you're navigating the rugged backcountry, traveling for a hunting expedition, or simply storing away your equipment, this case offers a sanctuary for your Ravin crossbows, complete with wheels and a tow handle to ensure easy transport wherever the hunt takes you.
